How can we resolve these problems? I have no blueprint. Given budgetary support by the Executive branch, it is essentially -- it has been and it remains -- a challenge for the Legislature.

Ten years ago, the same message I bring you today about the urgent need to reorganize the courts of Wayne County was delivered from this podium.

Little has changed since my predecessor as Chief Justice stood on this rostrum and declared, to your predecessors, that (I quote): "The problems are imminent and require prompt legislative resolution."

Now I say this not out of any sense of remonstrance to the Legislature. My only purpose is to make this point: Here is a tough nut to crack. It is a legislative problem. It has defied cracking for a long time. It must be cracked, sooner or later. There never is an ideal time for such a difficult task. But now is as good a time as we are likely to see.

There has been understandable uneasiness on the part of judges and employees of the courts in Detroit and Wayne County as to how any reorganization might affect their interests. Understandably, they want reassurance.

Primarily, this is a matter of definition of public policy through legislation.

However, the Headlee amendment, whatever may appear on the November ballot, the state of the economy -- all these overhang the future.

In short, there is a volatility to our times that breeds one change after another, often with effects that a Solomon could not foresee.

My conclusion is that we must not allow the predictable uncertainty of tomorrow to paralyze decision-making today. You and I -- all of us -- are bound in the offices we hold to exert the best leadership we know how, today, tomorrow and the next day, with the knowledge and resources available.

It is the peculiar genius of Americans, born of our pioneer heritage, to push forward steadily and confidently into uncharted territory.

Concededly, the Supreme Court must exercise significant administrative authority over the internal workings of the judicial system. But that authority is not central to the jurisdictional (reorganization) issue -- any more than the Governor's budget recommendations are central to legislative spending power.

Each branch of government -- Legislative, Judicial, Executive -- is allocated a primary band of responsibility, subject to checks and balances of the other two.

Let me dwell for a moment on my own branch.

The Judicial, which is frequently called the weakest branch, needs relative shelter from the gusty winds of public policy formulation -- the proper arena of legislators and the Executive.

From us in the courts the public wants, and has a right to expect, fairness, impartiality and a detachment from violent swings of factional clamor and political pressure.

A trusted, continously available and neutral form for prompt settlement is indispensable where fundamental rights of liberty and property are in dispute. Such a forum, in a sense, is the very backbone of a healty society.

When the courts cease to function -- whether because financing breaks down or other reason -- the fabric of the social order quickly unravels. Assaultive conduct in the streets and homes goes uncontained, save for police action. Children and widows go without support. Contracts are broken with impunity, and commerce is reduced to chaos.

These are sobering thoughts. I do not like to bring them up. But in the light of last fall's financial crisis in Wayne County, with the threat of shutting down

-- or partially shutting down court operations -- it seems necessary to give the question at least passing mention. I hope we are not going to face a repetition this year.

Turning for a moment to brighter topics, let me report that some of the recent legislative initiatives to improve functioning of the courts appear to be working out well.

Decriminalization of most traffic offenses, effective last August, has lifted the stigma from thousands of Michigan residents who have committed minor transgressions with motor vehicles.

Administrators report that in Detroit, particularly, inconvenience has been lessened, the specter of jail removed and a goodly number of offenders are utilizing the "responsible with explanation" plea that permits a recital of extenuating circumstances which accompanied the ticketing.

The one-jury, one-trial system continues to show encouraging results in the more populous counties. However, a hitch in obtaining anticipated federal funds has slowed jury assistance there and in outstate areas.

Early reports on the new Probate Code are favorable. Given the scope and complexity of change in this area, I expect that experience will reveal some need for minor adjustments.

Inequities in prison sentences long have troubled judges, penologists and others keenly interested in the correctional process. A task force led by Justice Moody of our Court has been working for some time to devise a sensible approach to greater uniformity. This is an age-old and most difficult problem.

The volume of litigation reaching our Supreme Court continues its relentless rise. In the last 10 years, it has tripled and an estimated 1,850 cases will be filed with us this year.

We are grateful for your fine budget support that has allowed the necessary staff build-up to deal with the problem. As I reported last year, we mounted our own successful "crash" program in order to catch up. We have maintained our equilibrium, I am pleased to say. Every opinion which is due has been filed -- at the cost of most nights and weekends.

I will not bore you with the detail but suffice it to say that the Court is nearing the end -- hopefully -- of a five-year-effort to re-codify, simplify and modernize the Michigan Rules of Civil Procedure. To the non-lawyers among you, this is the equivalent of publishing a 500 page book of material comparable in wit and charm to the fine print in an installment sales contract.

In similar vein, we have, after much effort, agreed on and published rules to implement the new Probate Code and Revised Standard Jury Instructions dovetailing with appropriate legislative acts and case law.

So you see, judicial duties, not unlike legislative duties, have their share of what might be called -- for lack of a better word -- intellectual drudgery.

Turning to another phase of administration, steps are being taken, with federal financial help through our Judicial Coordinating Committee, chaired by Chief Judge Robert J. Danhof, to deal with the woeful inadequacy of housing for some courts.

As to court facilities at the Capitol, I respectfully suggest that you consider the feasibility of a study toward an eventual state court building for the appellate courts and State Court Administrator's office. When the Supreme Court was removed from the Capitol, it supposedly was temporary in nature until such a building could be constructed. Plans were drawn for a site owned by the state -- but then came hard financial times, even as today. We are terribly cramped. Most Justices have only cubby-holes for offices in Lansing and the Administrator is inconveniently some blocks removed.

Planning today for the future seems to be the theme of these remarks -- but the future soon will be today.

My role of Chief Justice on this occasion is primarily that of spokeswoman for the Supreme Court. However, some leeway is allowed and I would like, as a final note, to offer a suggestion that is especially my own, although I am confident of agreement from my colleagues.

The time is right, it appears to me, for the Legislature to offer the people by Joint Resolution an opportunity to remedy an oversight in Article 1, Section 2 of the 1963 State Constitution.

That is one of the Declaration of Rights provisions. Specifically it is the provision setting forth constitutional guarantees against discrimination in exercise of civil or political rights for reasons of religion, race, color or national origin.

In the context of the times, I believe Michigan should add the word "sex" to the catalog of categories constitutionally protected against discrimination.

I am aware, of course, of the Civil Rights Commission's vigilance in monitoring discrimination against women. However, until recently, it had not occurred to me that the duties of the Civil Rights Commission as stated in Article V, Section 29 of the 1963 Constitution also are confined to matters of "alleged discrimination against any person because of religion, race, color or national origin".

I offer this recommendation essentially for its symbolic value. Michigan, in my judgment, stands in the forefront of the states when it comes to enlightened principles of equal protection. The Legislature and the Judiciary can be proud of zealousness in this entire field.

And yet, students of constitutional law, in New York, Colorado, California, you name it, are even today regaled by a case arising in Michigan under our existing Constitution as an example of deprivation of equal rights for women under attitudes that prevailed in society thirty years ago.

In the oft-cited classic case, Goesaert v Cleary, 355 US 464 (1948), the United States Supreme Court upheld a Michigan statute which made a woman ineligible for licensing as a bartender unless she was the wife or daughter of the male owner of the establishment.

The statute then challenged is no longer on our books. And yet, as things stand, there is no constitutional barrier to its reinstatement.

Although, as a matter of policy, I believe restraint is commendable in Constitutional changes, this suggestion would result only in the addition of one word to keep pace with the reality of practice and of statutes already in place.

In conclusion, I express my gratitude on behalf of the Judiciary for the cooperation you have regularly extended to us. And to this, I add a personal note of gratitude for the courtesies consistently shown to me by legislative committees and individuals.

So long as members of each branch of government -- the Legislative, Judicial and Executive -- treat each other with consideration and respect, the people of Michigan, our employers, will be well served.

None of us has a monopoly on wisdom and virtue. And so to the extent that we combine our talents and inspirations, the public life will be that much more enriched.

Thank you very much.

The Court completed 1,517 cases in the year ending 6/30/80, the fifth successive all-time record. That is 244% more than were completed 11 years ago or, stated another way, it is 3.44 times as many as were completed then.

Notwithstanding this extraordinary and sustained record of achievement the number of cases pending (under consideration but not completed) is 3.86 times as many as 11 years ago because new cases filed have increased by numbers greater than the completions.

AVERAGE	100%	9.5%	11.7%	76.6%	2.0%	9.4%

CASES COMPLETED= Court work completed, jurisdiction relinquished.

COMPLETED BY OPINIONS= Self-explanatory.

FINAL ORDERS WITHOUT OPINIONS. These are orders issued in response to an application for leave to appeal, pursuant to GCR 1963, 852.2(4)(g) or 853.2(4), reversing, reversing in part, affirming, remanding for specific proceedings, etc., without formal opinion but with specific reasons stated in the order, for the action taken. There is no oral argument in these cases. This is a more summary procedure than the leave granted process which, because it involves printed briefs, oral arguments and formal opinions, takes approximately 15 months longer to complete a case.

DENIALS OF LEAVE TO APPEAL. In general an appeal as of right to the Court of Appeals exists with regard to final judgments of the lower courts. Const 1963, Art IV, § 4, and GCR 1963, 852.1 and 853.1 vest the Supreme Court with the discretion to deny a further appeal.

DISMISSALS & WITHDRAWALS. Of the few cases in this category, most are dismissed or withdrawn by the action and consent of both parties. Ten percent are dismissed by the Court on motion charging failure to diligently pursue the appeal.

*GRANTS. Orders granting leave to appeal do not complete Court action on a case. Therefore, they are not included as case completions. The number of the orders granting leave to appeal each year is compared, as a percentage, to the totals of columns B, C and D, not including A. Thus the percentage accurately reflects the proportion of grants made to applications for leave to appeal acted upon. In all opinion cases, a grant order was issued but usually not in the same year the opinion was issued.

III TYPES OF CASES FILED WITH THE SUPREME COURT

Of the 1,850 cases filed with the Supreme Court last year, 1,770 or 96% were applications for leave to appeal from decisions made by the Court of Appeals, or prisoners' requests for relief from decisions of that Court, which are considered in much the same manner as applications for leave to appeal. The other 80 cases filed last year, 4% of the total, consisted of the following kinds of actions: 33 applications for leave to appeal prior to decision by the Court of Appeals; 2 claims of appeals from State Bar Grievance Board decisions; 3 applications for leave to appeal from Attorney Discipline Board decisions;38 complaints for superintending control relative to Grievance Board or Board of Law Examiner matters; 2 requests for advisory opinions from the Governor or Legislature; 2 Judicial Tenure Commission cases. This ratio, 96% applications for leave to appeal after decision by the Court of Appeals and 4% all other categories, is the same as last year and has been relatively constant since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965.

Of the 1,850 cases filed, 1,093 or 59% were criminal cases and 757 or 41% were civil cases. Since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965 the ratio of criminal and civil cases, preponderating on either side, has stayed within the limits of 6 to 4.

IV MOTIONS

With the exception of the column concerning grants in the table in section II, all of the foregoing concerns case completions and final orders of the Court. In addition the Court issues about 1,000 orders per year now which do not complete its action but are necessary toward that end: e.g., motions to dismiss, to affirm, to cross appeal, to limit issues, to strike, for emergency consideration, for bail, to extend time, to tax or not tax certain costs, for rehearing, for reconsideration, etc.

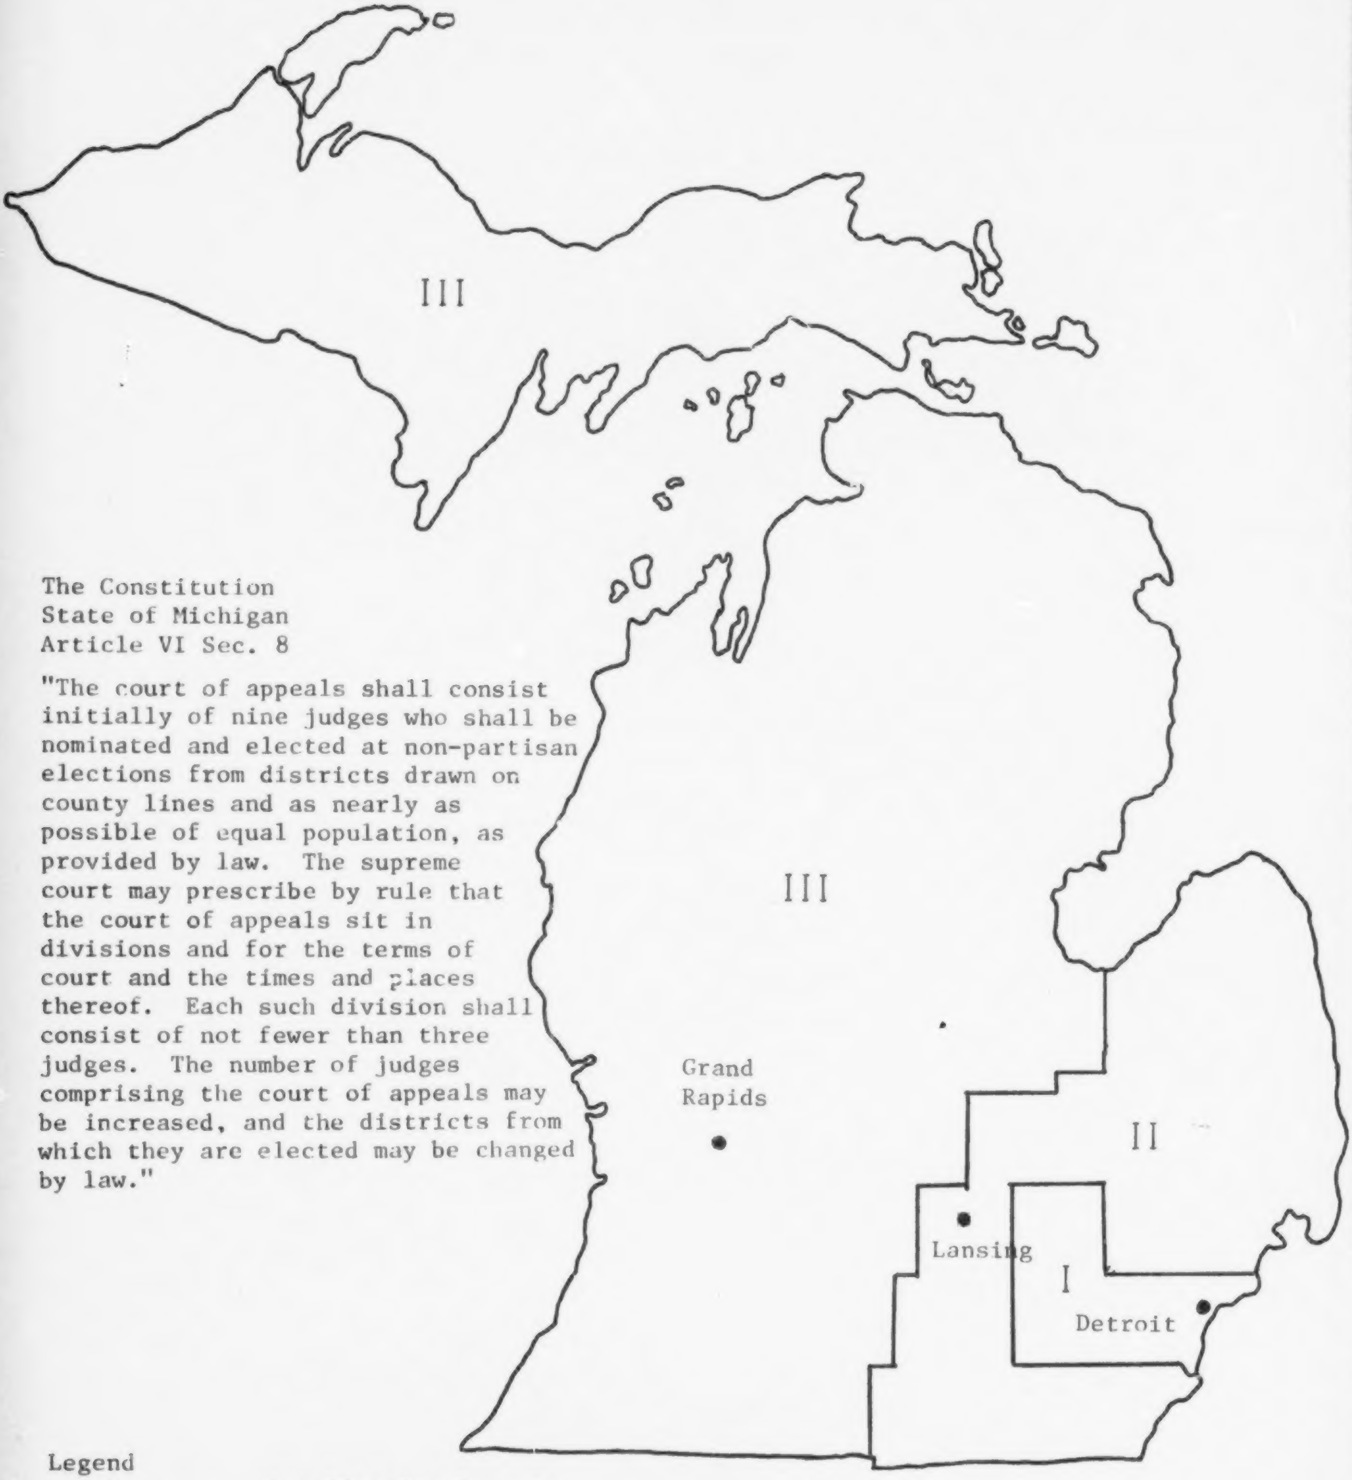
V ADMINISTRATIVE WORK

The Court's administrative workload has more than tripled in the last 12 years. This work stems largely from the Court's responsibility for superintending the judicial system. In 1969 only 15 formal administrative orders were issued. In 1980, 69 such orders were issued and in 1979 and 1978, respectively, 39 and 76 such orders were issued. No requests for advisory opinions were received from the Executive or Legislature in 1969 and less than one per year prior to 1972. Now the average is three per year. The resistant problems of trial court congestion demand ever more direct attention, particularly in major metropolitan areas. This past year large amounts of time have been spent on Wayne County Court Reorganization, the subject of sentence review, and preparations for a complete revision of the General Court Rules.

VI CONCLUSION

The Court has searched for every conceivable means to cope with the problems stemming from the more than threefold increase in its case and administrative workloads. It has enlarged its staff; utilized the most efficient equipment; and adopted procedures to complete more cases and to complete them sooner. In the year ended 6/30/80 the Court issued 2,333 orders; 1,517 final orders and 816 orders on motions and administrative matters. With trivial exceptions, each Justice must act upon each order. Thus in the year ended 6/30/80, each Justice had to reach a decision about and participate in the issuance, on average, of 9 orders per day every weekday of the year. The Court will continue to seek greater efficiency in its operation, to achieve greater production without a reduction of the quality of the decisions made, but it is believed that the Court is at or close to the limit of its capacity.

COURT OF APPEALS



The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 8

"The court of appeals shall consist initially of nine judges who shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines and as nearly as possible of equal population, as provided by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be changed by law."

ANNUAL REPORT

COURT OF APPEALS

(Chief Clerk Ronald L. Dzierbicki, of the Court of Appeals reports that the statistics for calendar years 1978 and 1979 are not verifiable and are expected to change when a final audit is possible. At the beginning of the fourth quarter of 1978, the Court of Appeals converted all records from a manual to an automated system. Because of other priorities, the Chief Clerk said it has been impossible to fully implement and verify the statistical module on the computer system. As a result, certain programming and data entry errors have not been eliminated--for example, the program does not count consolidated cases, and certain coded orders have not been programmed to close out an appeal. Therefore, the statistics presented here represent minimum figures which can be expected to increase when the statistical module is complete.)

The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 11

"The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges may be changed and circuits may be created, altered and discontinued by law and the number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term."

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

The Michigan Constitution, 1963, Art. 6, Sec. 23 and RJA Sec. 225, 226, 306, 825 and 8212, as amended, authorize assignment of judges from one court to another either by direct order of the Supreme Court or through the State Court Administrator.

Judicial vacancies occur during the year due to retirement, death or serious illness which require an assignment to fill the vacancy on a temporary basis. Often it is necessary to provide temporary assistance to a court which is experiencing a sudden increase in trial work, or a series of lengthy trials. Assignments are also made when a court is behind in its work, or when a case requires disqualification of a particular judge or an entire bench.

In most instances, assignments to the Court of Appeals or the Circuit, District or Probate Courts are made without regard to whether the assigned judge regularly sits on that court. For example, it is not unusual for a Probate Judge to be assigned to a Circuit Court, District to Circuit, Circuit to Court of Appeals, etc. This flexibility provides more efficient use of the most precious commodity in court administration: judge time.

Assignments of retired or former judges to all courts except the probate court require expenditure of state funds for payment of the state portion of the assigned judge's compensation and expenses. The balance of the assigned judge's compensation is the responsibility of local governmental units and is paid from local funds.

Assignments of incumbent "sitting" judges to any court, and assignments of retired or former judges to the probate courts, are wholly funded under the law by the local governmental units and thus require no state expenditure.

MICHIGAN
JUDICIAL TENURE COMMISSION

ANNUAL REPORT

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

COMMISSION PURPOSE

The Judicial Tenure Commission was created in 1968, by Constitutional amendment and since that time has acted pursuant to the authority vested in it through General Court Rule 932, as amended.

The nine-member Commission, through its staff, receives and confidentially investigates complaints of misconduct regarding judges at virtually every level of the State Judiciary. Many of the complaints after preliminary investigation are found to be without merit; many others are disposed of through private admonition of the individual judge; in serious cases, the Commission is empowered to issue formal charges and conduct public hearings and, upon a finding of judicial misconduct, to recommend the imposition of discipline by the Supreme Court. In its 11-year history, the Commission has found it necessary to issue formal complaints in only 23 instances, underscoring the careful consideration such an important step receives.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

The Commission may undertake an investigation of a grievance:

1. Upon receiving a sworn statement alleging judicial misconduct;

2. On its own motion upon receiving information appearing to the Commission to warrant investigation;

3. Upon receipt of a Request for Investigation from the Attorney Grievance Commission; or

4. Upon request of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or the State Court Administrator.

Several procedural steps are required to be taken before a recommendation of discipline or removal can be made to the Supreme Court. Before any formal complaint can be filed against a judge, the Commission is required to notify the judge, in writing and in confidence, of the nature of the charges and the judge must be allowed a reasonable opportunity to respond. The Commission must then consider the judge's reply and determine whether or not to bring formal charges by the filing of a formal complaint.

After a formal complaint is filed and served on the respondent judge, he or she has 15 days to file an answer to the charges made in the formal complaint. The complaint, answer and all subsequent proceedings are public, and open to public inspection.

After the filing of a judge's answer, a hearing must be held by the Commission on the charges. This is a fact-finding hearing at which the evidence in support of the charges is presented by the Commission's Examiner, usually the Executive Director or a staff attorney. The judge, or counsel, is entitled to cross-examine all witnesses and to present evidence in defense of the charges.

Normally, the hearing is held before a Master, or fact-finder appointed by the Supreme Court. The Respondent Judge must be given at least 20 days notice before the hearing is held on the complaint.

The Master, within 30 days after the hearing, must report to the Commission setting forth findings of fact and conclusions of law. Upon the filing of the Master's report, either party has 15 days in which to file objections to the Master's report. If such objections are filed, the Commission must hold a hearing to allow the examiner or the judge's counsel to present arguments in support of the objections. After the hearing, the Commission must consider the evidence and determine whether to make a disciplinary recommendation to the Supreme Court, or to dismiss the complaint without further action.

If the Commission recommends disciplinary action to the Supreme Court, the Commission's factual and legal findings in regard to the complaint are filed with the recommendation.

After the Commission's recommendation is received by the Supreme Court, the Respondent Judge has 30 days in which to file objections to the recommendation of the Commission. Thereafter, the case is heard on the record made at the hearing before the Master and is reviewed in its entirety by the Supreme Court in the same manner as a civil action on appeal, with briefs filed by both sides, oral argument and review by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court, in its decision, can accept, reject or modify the Commission's recommendation. In its determination, the Supreme Court can exercise its constitutional power to discipline a judge by directing censure, suspension, retirement or removal from office or such sanction as it deems appropriate.

ANNUAL REPORT

SUMMARY OF GRIEVANCES CONSIDERED

The information contained in this report covers the period from July 1, 1979, to June 30, 1980.

Since its inception, the Commission has opened 1,647 files concerning grievances against judicial officers, 315 of which were received during the past year. During the current fiscal year, 289 grievances reached final disposition, resulting in a year-end caseload of 104 pending grievances.

GRIEVANCE SOURCES

Of the 315 grievances filed with the Commission in the course of the current period, such grievances originated from the following sources:

222	Litigants
19	Nonlitigating Citizens
2	Judges
2	Court Personnel

MICHIGAN
ATTORNEY GRIEVANCE COMMISSION

State of Michigan

Attorney Grievance Commission

The Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission and the Attorney Discipline Board were created by the Supreme Court October 1, 1978. The Commission is, pursuant to GCR 1963, 957.1, the prosecution arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The offices of the Commission are located in the Marquette Building, 243 W. Congress, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

The Commission consists of seven persons who serve without compensation and are appointed as follows:

Three lawyers appointed by the Supreme Court; two public members appointed by the Supreme Court; two lawyers appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

Chapter 95 of the General Court Rules governs the conduct of attorney disciplinary proceedings.

Any person may file a request for investigation of a grievance against an attorney with the Grievance Administrator and the Grievance Administrator may file a request for investigation where necessary. The filing of a request for investigation initiates the grievance process.

Following the filing of a request for investigation, the Grievance Administrator must determine whether there exists a prima facie allegation of professional misconduct, i.e., a violation of General Court Rule 953. The Grievance Administrator may reject the request for investigation, or he may conduct an investigation. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the Administrator recommends to the Commission that (1) the matter should be closed as there is not provable evidence of professional misconduct sufficient to sustain the burden of proof at a disciplinary proceeding, or (2) that authorization should be granted for the issuance of a formal complaint.

In the Commission's calendar year, October 1, 1979 to September 30, 1980, a total of 3,231 requests for investigation were filed, as compared to 2,578 for the previous year. This represented an increase of over 25%. Of the 3,231 grievances received, 1,851 were rejected by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to GCR 1963, 961.3; 924 were closed by the Commission pursuant to GCR 1963, 963.1(2); 350 were closed administratively; 66 resulted in confidential admonishments, and 189 were authorized by the Commission for formal proceedings.

Assisting the full-time professional staff in the investigation function are some 197 volunteer investigators. The volunteer investigators are members of the State Bar of Michigan who perform this public service on behalf of the Commission. They are reimbursed only for actual out-of-pocket expenses. Approximately 10% of the formal investigations are referred to the volunteer investigators.

In prosecuting formal complaints before Hearing Panels of the Attorney Discipline Board (the Supreme Court's adjudicative agency for attorney discipline) the Administrator and his professional staff are assisted by some 139 volunteer counsel, who, like the volunteer investigators, are members of the State Bar of Michigan who donate their services to the Commission. Approximately 15% of the litigated matters are referred to volunteer counsel.

LITIGATION

Upon authorization by the members of the Commission, the Grievance Administrator prepares and files a complaint with the Attorney Discipline Board. The Grievance Administrator is the party-petitioner to every formal charge of misconduct.

Hearings on charges of misconduct are held before three-lawyer hearing panels of the Attorney Discipline Board. The hearings are open to the public. The Grievance Administrator is required to prove his case by a preponderance of the evidence and the respondent may retain counsel, cross-examine witnesses, and present evidence in his own behalf. The practice and procedure employed in non-jury civil cases are applicable to disciplinary proceedings as are the Michigan Rules of Evidence.

Upon conclusion of the hearings, if the panel finds that the Administrator has failed to prove misconduct by a preponderance of the evidence, the case against the respondent must be dismissed. If the panel concludes that professional misconduct has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the panel must enter an order of discipline, either reprimanding, suspending or disbarring the respondent. A suspension or disbarment disqualifies the respondent from the practice of law, whereas a reprimand is in the nature of a public censure. All discipline in Michigan is a matter of public record. (An admonishment issued by the Commission is confidential and is an administrative warning not constituting discipline.)

Any party may appeal an order of a hearing panel as of right to the Attorney Discipline Board, and may seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court from an order of the Attorney Discipline Board.

FUNDING

The budget for the Attorney Grievance Commission for the fiscal year, October 1, 1979 - September 30, 1980 was $422,213.00. Pursuant to General Court Rule 954, the entire expenses of the Commission were paid by the State Bar of Michigan. No public tax dollars were employed in the funding of the Commission's operations.

The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 11

"The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges may be changed and circuits may be created, altered and discontinued by law and the number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term."
